Luxor Scientific and Capstone Health Alliance Forge Partnership Introducing Advanced Diagnostic Testing to Health Systems Across the US

GREENVILLE, SOUTH CAROLINA, August 1, 2024 – Luxor Scientific, a leader in clinical diagnostics, has entered into a strategic partnership with Capstone Health Alliance, a prominent regional group purchasing organization (GPO) in the US healthcare industry. This collaboration will grant Capstone’s membership of health systems, independent hospitals, and physician offices across the country access to cutting-edge diagnostic testing and expedited results.

A full-service, privately held medical and research laboratory, Luxor Scientific offers innovative testing solutions that often lead the industry in response to healthcare concerns nationwide. Driven by a team of industry leading scientists and operational leaders, Luxor has developed proprietary technology to increase speed and provide accurate results.

- OWLiver®, the only serum test based off the MASEF Score® able to identify all damaging phases of MASLD, formally known as NAFLD.
- Epidermal Nerve Fiber Density (ENFD) Testing, a highly sensitive and specific test done in-office for documenting small fiber peripheral neuropathy.
- Clinical Medication Monitoring & Toxicology, extensive testing of urine and oral fluid samples for over 100 drugs including emerging novel illicit xylazine, pentylone, nitazenes, bromazolam, and tianeptine.
- CannabisConfirm™, a custom solution for identifying if patients have taken Delta-8- or Delta-9-THC amidst the significant increase in usage of CBD products.
- Molecular Pathogen, both traditional microbiology and rapid PCR testing for infectious diseases.

“We are excited to join forces with Luxor Scientific to offer Capstone Health Alliance Members access to critical diagnostic tests and the information they provide to deliver optimal, timely patient care,” expressed Fred J. Pane, R. Ph., FASHP, FABC, Vice President of Pharmacy Services at Capstone Health Alliance. “Most importantly, Luxor’s tests will equip our Members with the ability to enhance treatment efficacy.”

Marion Snyder, Ph.D., Chief Science Officer of Luxor Scientific, added, “We are thrilled to collaborate with Capstone Health Alliance to provide our diagnostic tests to its extensive network. Our aim is to improve patient care by delivering innovative diagnostic solutions with industry-leading turnaround times that will aid physicians in selecting appropriate treatment plans for their patients to live healthier and happier lives.”

The announcement of this collaboration marks the start of a partnership aimed at improving healthcare outcomes for more patients. Luxor Scientific's extensive array of laboratory services is now accessible to members of Capstone Health Alliance.
